"If You Cannot Get Rid Of The Family Skeleton, Why Not Make It Dance?" (George Bernard Shaw)

An Ancestor Skeleton? Oh My! If you think that you have troubles, explore how one "infamous" ancestor became a cause celebrity, instead of an embarrassment. What are some approaches for you to use when encountering this type of situation? Is your perspective the correct one in judging your ancestor?

The program features the second cousin of the speaker who is the second most famous English "murderer" (after Jack the Ripper) who was featured in an October, 2008 PBS documentary named "Executed In Error?" that contained startling new evidence.

About the Speaker

J. Patrick Crippen of Centerville, Ohio is a member of Board of Trustees of OGS. Member of Montgomery County Chapter of OGS; NEHGS, the Irish Genealogy Society International; the Hilton Head Island Heritage Library, and several local genealogy groups in ancestral locations. He has been the presenter of GeneaFUNology Seminars at several local genealogy groups as well as the Dayton LDS Annual Jamboree (2005, 2006 & 2007) and at the 2005 OGS Conference.

In former business career, he prepared and presented product training and general marketing sessions around the world.
